Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Liberty Union High School Annual, Vol. 2 This fact set Robert to thinking and he immediately decided upon paying her a visit. Robert rushed around and changed his collar several times and also his necktie, and was a great deal more excited than he would have cared to admit. At last he was ready and started to go next door by walking down the street, but on second thought he decided to jump the fence, as in the olden days, for old time s sake. He was met by a young girl dressed in white, who came forward and cordially extended her hand in welcome. At first he hardly could believe his eyes that this was the same girl that he had made mud pies with. But yes. it was Lillian! She had the same dark blue eyes and the same sweet smiling mouth. And on her fourth linger on her left hand she wore the ring with the lone forget-me-not. Lillian had never forgotten Robert, and though she had had many a suitor for her hand, had considered her engagement as binding. Roberts sister had brought the two together for the first time and has done so many times afterwards. It is needless to say that their engagement was soon formally announced, and just a year after his arrival they were happily married. Leading the wedding march was Roberts sister, carrying the brides bouquet, and they were all happy, for it was a little child that led them. Class History. It was on the twenty-third day of August in nineteen hundred and two that about twenty-five pupils gathered at the school house in...
