Disability Money Secrets

By John P. Gallagher

CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback.

Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand.

Paperback. 48 pages. Dimensions: 7.8in. x 5.1in. x 0.1in. If you are a disabled person, a little financial assistance can make a huge difference in your lifestyle. And, it could be that a small amount of knowledge is the only thing stopping you from getting aid in housing, transportation, education, and much more. Now, an easy-to-understand, fact-filled guide can help you get the benefits that can transform your livelihood and your life. In Disability Money Secrets, author and mental health advocate John P. Gallagher draws from twenty-five years of financial know-how and eight years as a mental health consumer representative. He now shares the sources he discovered that allowed him to work only part-time, yet collect thousands of dollars in assistance and resources each year.

After finding himself on disability and relocating to Madison,

Wisconsin, Gallagher gradually researched the assistance available through schools, churches, the government, and other organizations that is seldom advertised, and often goes untapped. Divided into concise, informative chapters, Disability

Money Secrets identifies resources including free support groups, medical assistance, social security disability insurance, and school free lunch programs. It also alerts you to benefits...
