Brand New Book  Print on Demand .You may or may not have noticed that the world is a relative place. You may or may not think that rednecks are very smart. You may or may not even see a correlation between the two. But, if you read this book you will. Jacob H Cobb Baxter brings his sense of observation coupled with good old boy wisdom and redneck logic alive in print as he takes you through a journey about the relativity of life. This is no singular minded book either. A wide variety of subjects are covered. Everything from cows, cars, trebuchets, electricity, snow, and even the ancient Egyptians are exposed in a big game of connect the dots. The subjects are shown to have a connection to everyday life and the lessons that can be learned from them. They are approached in a very heartfelt way. But, they still have some hayseed humour sprinkled in just to keep things interesting. So, y all just sit down and take yourselves a gander at all of this relativity, friends and neighbours. Y all might just learn yourselves something.
