Personally it appears to us that either we grow more critical or the average butter grows poorer in flavor from year to year. MARKET CONDITIONS From Our Special Correspondents NEW YORK Receipts for week 43, 977 Last week 39, 655 Same time last year 38, 465 Butter--The week began doing business on a basis of 69c for extras. There was a shortage of stock at this time, and prices were bid up one-half cent in the effort to secure goods. There has been no further change in this price up to this time. One desirable feature of the market has been the larger movement of undergrades, and these accumulations are being somewhat reduced. The higher scoring lots are somewhat scarce, and there is more or less demand for them at the high price. Unsalted creamery has been in rather moderate supply, and holders have been able...

Reviews

It is one of the most popular publications. It is actually written in easy words instead of confusing. You will like how the author created this book.
