Excerpt: .love of many waxes cold, we feel at times tempted to despond and to let the conflict go on. But Scripture teaches us a different lesson with regard to the power of prayer. St. Paul writes to the Thessalonians-- Brethren! pray for us, that the word of God may have free course and be glorified. And in accordance with this, the Church directs us to offer up petitions for all sorts and conditions of men. She even instructs us to pray for spiritual blessings upon ourselves, only that they may be imparted to others also. The language of her Evening Anthem is-- God be merciful unto us, and blesa us, and show us the light of His countenance and be merciful unto us. And why? That Thy way may be known upon earth, Thy saving health among all nations. We find then, that we also as a Church have, in this respect a duty to perform with regard to the advancement of our faith. And here we would remark more particularlyon the duty of presenting our petitions to God, for those who attend with us in the same sanctuary. When we remember how often the Gospel is proclaimed in our Churches, and that it is God s own appointed means for publishing the truth, we can not but ask, Why is it that so few receive it? Why do the majority of those who listen, still refuse to be reconciled to our Lord, or...
