Excerpt: . . . and, therefore, with the concurrence and by the direction of the President, I have removed the books, and c, to my own house, as I am the officer legally charged with their care, and I shall keep them until the present points in dispute are decided by the proper authority. The president and I have done all in our power to assemble a legal meeting of the Academy, so that a cheque might be drawn, and the insurance on the building paid before the 8th instant. You have provented this from being done, and on you therefore must rest the responsibility of any injury to the Academy which may result. If you wish to try in a Court of Justice the legal question regarding my right to retain the books under the present circumstances, I will give you every facility, and am, sir, yours obediently, M. ANGELO HAYES. At this time Mr. Kirk resigned the office of Treasurer by the subjoined letter to the President--TO THE PRESIDENT AND MEMBERS OF THE ROYAL HIBERNIAN ACADEMY. April lit, 1857. Mr. President and Gentlemen--I beg to inform you that it no longer suits either my convenience or my inclination to retain the treasurership of the Academy, I therefore now resign into your hands that office, which I have held for a period of more than two years, at much personal inconvenience and great loss of time, which, notwithstanding, I would willingly continue to sacrifice to the general...
