CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 310 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.2in. x 0.8in. In this anthology relationships, the future, the past and now are all permanently tainted by the action or inaction of the main players; their own histories are laid out for all to see. Choose a player, pick a story, and indulge in their nightmare. Silicon Rules OK: Its 2020 and man's reign over the Earth comes to an end as he is forced to become subservient to machines. How will the humanity react? Will the machines make a better job of ruling the Earth? Nightmare Revisited: Tony returns to the city of his childhood, Hiroshima. He tries to trace family and friends who stayed and experienced the bomb. The experience brings heartache as he relives the terrible events of that fateful day in 1945. After his visit he becomes a changed man. Revenge in the Sun: Pam and Steve invite a business colleague, Lester and his girlfriend, Robin, to holiday in their house in France once too often. Lester reads a small article in The Times that will change all of their lives, permanently. With Best Endeavour: Ted Johnson and his wife have been living a life, Ted's life, socialising and enjoying themselves, regardless of others. He has no long term plans after the next pint. But he is about to receive a rude awakening. Forward to the Past: It's the 25th Century and Government have taken the term Nanny State to an entirely different level; a world where families are non-existent, children grow up in state-run nurseries without a parent's love. Can Nina and Mark escape the trap and move forward to the past to give their unborn child a chance at life? Invisible Friend: Gavin had lived...
