Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Panoramic Drawing: One-Point and Cylindrical Perspective General Value of Panoramic Drawing Conventional Signs. A panoramic drawing is a picture of a given piece of territory as it would appear to an observer in a balloon. The drawing is not made from the balloon, however, but from a Sat map, and for this reason it can be substituted when a photograph could not be taken. There are two kinds of panoramic drawings, the vertical plane or one-point perspective, and the cylindrical plane or many-point perspective. The foundation of the one-point is easier to construct, yet the drawing of the objects requires more judgment; the finished drawing of the cylindrical is the more accurate of the two. We shall confine ourselves to the development of the one-point theory and later to the cylindrical theory. The average observer going up in the balloon for the first time in a given sector requires anywhere from 20 to 30 hours to feel himself thoroughly at home in his new territory. After having studied a panoramic drawing on the ground, it...
