RareBooksClub. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 330 pages. Dimensions: 9.7in. x 7.4in. x 0.7in. This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text. Purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book (without typos) from the publisher. Not indexed. Not illustrated. 1905 edition. Excerpt: . . . some cases also by the probation officers, of the juvenile courts in the different states. It also contains an introduction by Dr. Barrows and an appendix giving the text of the laws in the different states. The other report is entitled Tuberculosis in Penal Institution, by Dr. J. B. Ransom, physician to Clinton Prison, Dannemora, New York (House Document No. 142, 58th Congress). Members of Congress were so impressed with the value of the report that several thousand copies were ordered printed. Copies of these documents can be found for April, entitled Charity One Hundred Years Ago. This article, by the Countess of Jersey, is based upon five volumes of reports of the Society for Bettering the Conditions and Increasing the Comforts of the Poor--a society which was founded in 1796 and had many of our problems and some happy solutions. III The John C. Winston Company, Philadelphia, has in press, for publication in June, The Russian Jew in the United States, planned and edited by Charles S. Bernheimer. It contains papers on the elements of the Jewish population in the United States and the Russian Jews in their native land, together with detailed studies of social conditions among this population in New York, Philadelphia, and Chicago, and descriptive of their distribution and rural settlements here, each topic being by a writer familiar with the facts as to the particular community and locality considered. The contributors, besides the editor, are:...
