Our parents had a fancy for names terminating in a, but after christening me Maria, their memory proved unequal to the strain of four daughters, and they had recourse to novels for suggestions. Hence a Belinda, an Olivia, and a Pamela. The boys answered to the more every-day titles of William and Jack. About our ages there were two points to remember. First, that Pamela was barely seventeen, and the youngest; secondly, that we were said to be the only annuals on record ever known to become perennials. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books. Find more at This book is a reproduction of an important historical work.
