Paperback. Book Condition: New. Not Signed; With this book you can turn a good idea into a profitable e-business. It can help you not dread a letter from the Inland Revenue and give you the basics in running a small business from book keeping to registering a limited company. 1) THE IDEA How to work out if your idea is any good. How to assess its likelihood to produce an income - can you charge people for it, will anyone advertise. Is anyone else doing it? Are you the right person to do it (ie do you have personal contacts that can make it happen)? Can you afford the costs in producing the site? 2) BUILDING THE SITE Can you do it yourself? How do you find a designer/programmer? How much should you expect to pay? Does your site need specialist technical support? How to decipher the jargon. 3) MARKET RESEARCH How to research the market, assess how much ad revenue/sponsorship your site is likely to produce, find out how many of your target audience in online, suss out the competition. 4) PROFIT DRIVERS/GET TO KNOW YOUR SITE This is what makes the difference between success and riches. How to find out where big revenues are really going to come from, how to analyse your service to expose the opportunities for making money. 5) PREPARING YOUR BUSINESS PLAN This is the essential document that will either help to raise funds or simply guide you through the coming months. From sensitivity analysis to expansion plans to appointing a board of advisers this will help readers plan a blueprint for success. 6) RAISING FINANCE This is probably why people will buy the book and this chapter will run through all the ways of supporting a new internet venture. Is it possible to...
